

Little Switzerland presents pearls for a pearl of a girl

The Little Switzerland shop in the Westin Aruba Resort was the site for a special presentation this past Tuesday evening. Yolanda Chai, store manager, and Vanessa Hollander were pleased to present a “cascade” design necklace by Yvel, consisting of Biwa freshwater pearls and diamonds to Tracey Nicolass, Miss Aruba 2007-2008. The elegant piece is well suited to the lovely young woman, graceful and tasteful, and she was very grateful for the gift.

Next year Tracey will represent Aruba at the Miss Universe pageant in 2008, rumored to be held in Japan. What would be more suitable for her to wear than Japanese freshwater pearls, which will certainly accessorize beautifully with her gowns? The director of Star Promotions, who conducts the annual Miss Aruba Universe pageant and Tracey expressed their gratitude for the thoughtful gift.

Rob Smith, General Manager and Pat Donovan, Director of Sales and Marketing of the Westin Resort dropped by to offer their best wishes to Miss Aruba, and to do the honors of placing the necklace on her for the first time. All present agreed that the beautiful necklace and the beautiful young woman were a perfect match!
